

LAST EDITION

LAST EDITION

TERRIBLE BLIZZARD HAS N. Y. AT ITS MERCY—
CLAIMS CITY ATT'Y PADDED THE PAYROLL—
WEEGHMAN NAMES FIVE NEW FEDERALISTS

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 131

Chicago, Tuesday, March 3, 1914

ONE CENT

COPS SAY THEY ARE FORCED TO ARREST WAITRESSES BY "ORDERS"

*Several More Strikers Dragged Down to Station—
Sergeant 'Phones To Henrici's To Find Out
What Charge To Hold Them On.*

The cops on duty in front of Henrici's were on the job today apparently determined to continue in their allegiance to the restaurant owners.

Hardly had the striking girl waitresses begun picket duty before two of them were grabbed and hustled to the Central Station. The girls were Isabelle Smith and Mabel Kramer.

When they arrived at the station the desk sergeant asked: "What are you going to book them for?"

"I dunno," replied the cop who had brought them in, "better call up Henrici's and find out."

The sergeant went to the telephone. He got Henrici's, and then he inquired their wishes as to the charges the girls should be booked for.

When he hung up the girls were booked on double charges each, conspiracy and disorderly conduct.

The girls were arrested by Officers Wolfe and Kerker.

Leroy H. Durbin, 904 S. Campbell av., was arrested because he didn't move on fast enough to suit Sergt. Malone.

The investigation by the city council committee on schools, fire police and civil service into the high-